This is a review of captioned book, published in England in 1969 by Allison and Busby Limited. The book is being placed in the Bureau library.

Author [REDACTED] (U)

The book jacket notes that Greenlee is a Negro, born July 13, 1930, in Chicago, Illinois. Allegedly, he served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Army prior to present employment with a civil rights organization.

Book Review [REDACTED] (U)

Captioned book is a novel about a Negro Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) Agent who resigns to organize a group of black revolutionaries from the members of a Negro youth gang. The former CIA Agent is successful, in the story, to the extent that at the book's conclusion, urban guerrilla warfare is widespread in the United States.

This book is not a blueprint for revolution, but does contain some information on how to organize a guerrilla group.

Mention of the FBI [REDACTED] (U)

The only mention of the FBI or the Director is a comment in passing that the FBI investigates thefts of government property.

ACTION:

None. For information.
